The cabinet in do
4, room 203.

Is it the memory box we made 200 years ago?

No way.
No one has moved it for 200 years?

...that airhead chose the trigger

But why do you ask? There's no way it'll be opened, and even if it were, it wouldn't cause that much of a problem.
There's nothing inside except our childhood with Senka.
That's exactly the problem.
Hyacen hasn't thought about his mother's existence yet
Deep inside, I'm sure he wants to know, but he has never once asked me about her.

For the past three years, it's the worst development I could imagine. I've been dreading the moment it would actually happen...
The moment when Hyacen starts wondering about his dead mother.

I was barely able to calm him down after what happened on Melty Day. I don't want to confuse him even further with something like this Really?

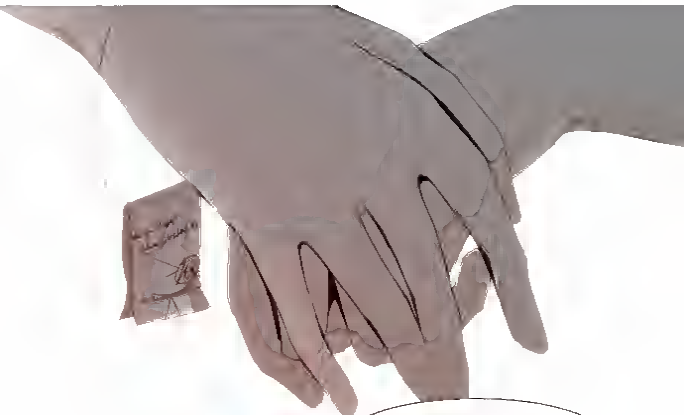
Did you give up on opening the cabinet?
I think I whacked it too hard. My arm feels like it's going to fall off, so I'm taking a little break.
Pity.

Just ask Sena-nuna to do it for you!
She has that... uhh... master trigger or something!

.....

Yeah, but, the policeman ..



I'll talk to ajussi again tomorrow.

I think it's better to do that than ask a stranger.

Haven't you done enough?

I told you to stop, didn't I? Why are you still trying? Pisses me off.
Earlier it was cheating, and now it's the cabinet?
You're just trouble incarnate.

You can't even satisfy your own curiosity, and you bother Professor Kashin for every little thing.
Can't you even do anything for yourself?

You think everything will work out if you act like a child.
Are you aware that behavior is exactly what makes Professor Kashin look bad?
Hey, hey... Why are you acting that way?
Bize, why do you keep saying things like that?
It's fine, Min.
...

He's completely right, after all.

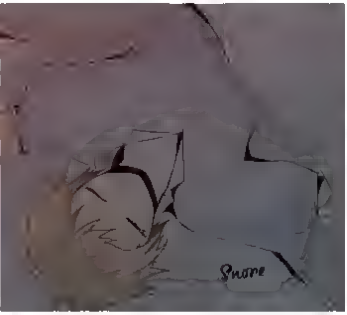
〈Trump〉 ©이채은
cafe.naver.com/sinceby1991
twitter.com/lsm1991



Dang it.

You don't even know anything.

Ajussi's the same.
He shouldn't have been so obvious. I wouldn't have been so dead-set on opening the cabinet then.
What were you thinking, letting me know that you had something to do with the cabinet?
It's making me even more curious.

If it's ajussi's memory box from 200 years ago, then it might have things about my dad, too.
They've known each other since they were kid., After all.
Is there a way to open it without ajussi finding out?
But it's about dad... Should I just give up...?
Swish
Huh?

SFX: Zoom

Beat

...is...no...

Beat

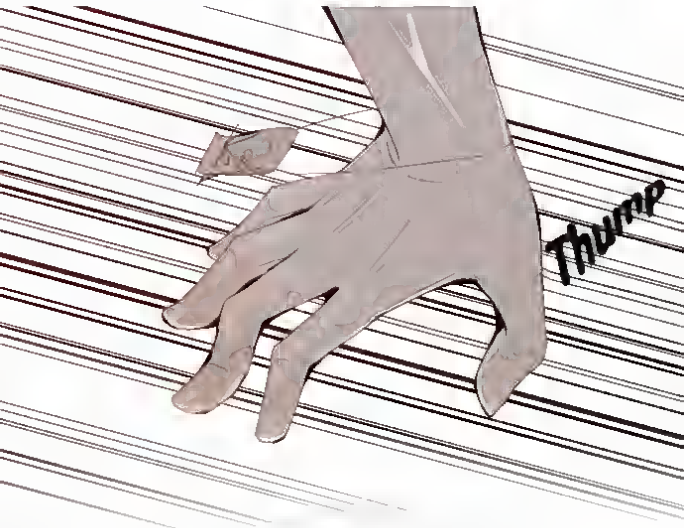
No way...

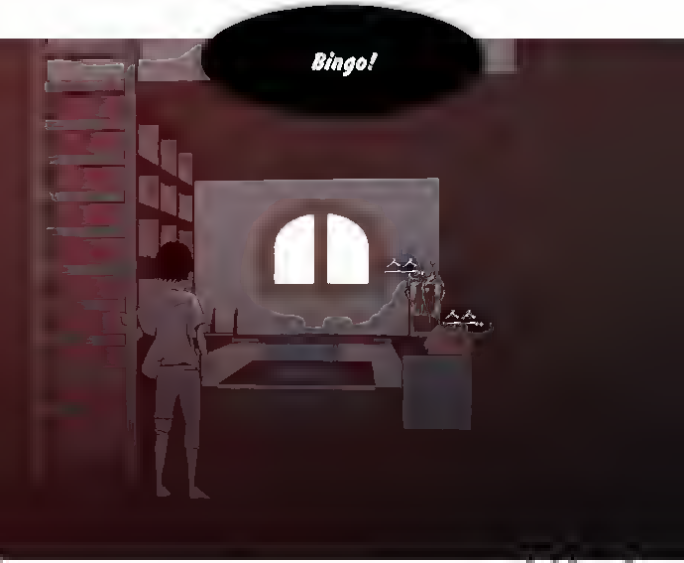


Thump

Stomp

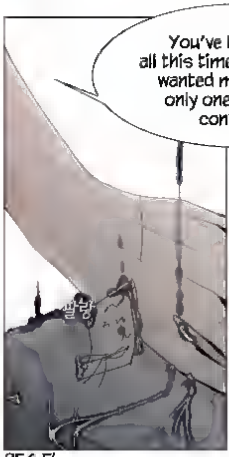
Stomp

I see!!



Bingo!
SFX: Swoosh Swoosh

You don't want anyone else but me to open it, right?



You've been quiet all this time because you wanted me to be the only one to see its contents!
팔랑

SFX: Flap

I want to see the memories in here!
Tell me!!

Tell me the trigger for the cabin!
Why the hell do we need something like that?

I am the only one who can open it. Just make that the rule.

THAT'S SO UNFAIR! WE ALL MADE IT TOGETHER, SO WHY ARE YOU THE ONLY WHO CAN OPEN IT?!
SHUT UP IT WAS MINE FROM THE BEGINNING WHY ARE YOU UP THERE ANYWAY? GET DOWN HERE RIGHT NOW
AH, DON'T DO THAT!!
What the heck are you two doing now?
Stop fighting and listen to me.
Get your filthy hands off of me before I rip out all your hair, you bleep.

I have a good proposition.

The trigger for the box, in other words the password, will be created by Ren.

That's a pretty good idea, coming from a half-witted jerk.

But/ in return, Nori and I will decide what goes inside. So? Any objections?

Nori also wants the box to stay locked, and we both agree on putting our memories about Senika in there.

.....

Fine.

Why did you suggest something like that?
If Ran chooses the trigger, we won't be able to open it.
Either way, he's going to do whatever he wants. Did you think I would just quietly sit back and let him do so?

That jerk has spent more time with Senik than we have.
Yeah... You're right. Ran just thinks we're pests.

He really likes Senika, after all.

Exactly.

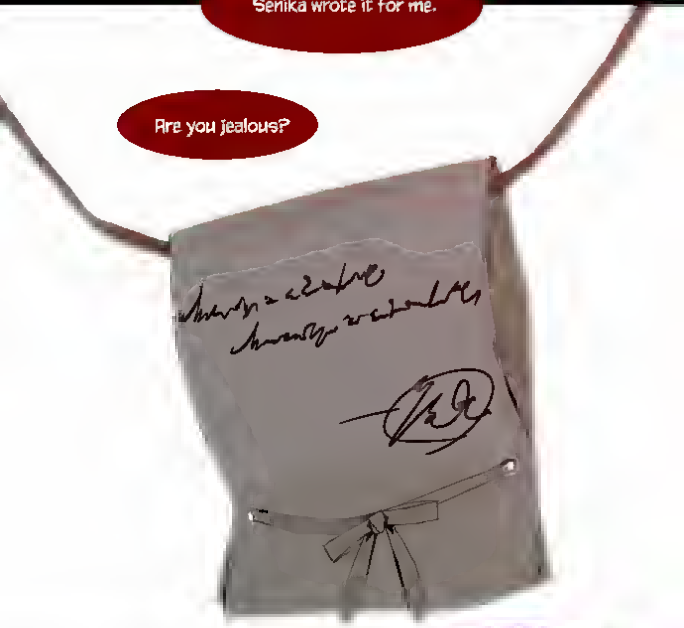
Anyway, let's think about what to put in the box. We have to put something in there before Ran starts complaining.
But there really isn't anything we could put in there,...
Hey. What are you guys doing?
Don't sit so close together. It pisses me off
Oh, Ran! I heard that the Mana Society paid you a visit! Did you see Senka too?
No. Senka didn't come.

But she did give me a present.

Ta-da!
It's a charm.

Senika wrote it for me.

Are you jealous?



Whoa! It's been a long time since I've seen a dam-

It'd be nice if Senika got better soon and came to school.
She's pretty, so she'll be really popular.
WHAT? POPULAR?!

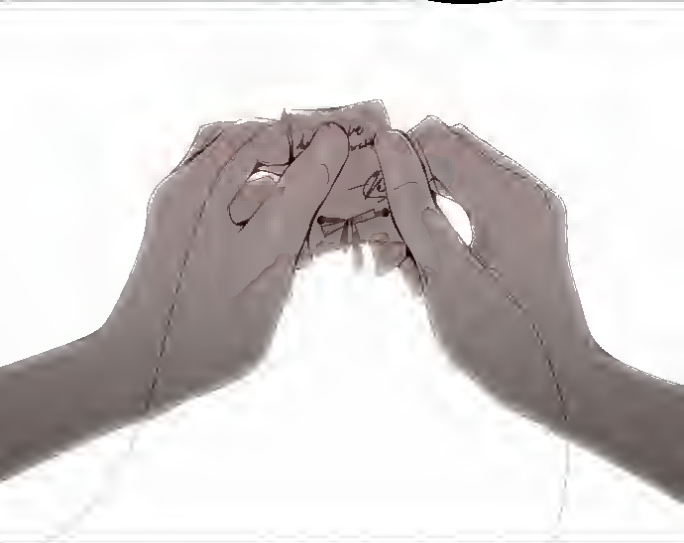
If anyone tries to hit on her, I will crush their skulls into powder.

Snore

Because Senika is mine

Tsk.

I should've given her a charm back.



She'll have a hard time by herself.
"Senika is physically weak, so the Mana Society is keeping her."

"If you try hard in school and get along with your friends, she'll get better in no time. Don't worry."

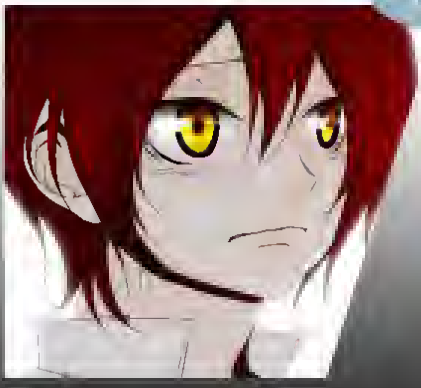
I can't, after all. I want to stay here with Senika.
Hey! Don't [illegible] a child [illegible]
I don't want to go. You never tell me when you're sick.
You want me to just wait patiently without knowing anything?

I can start a semester late. We'll go together once you get better.

I'm the one who should be worried, Ran.

What if all the girls fall for you?

There'll be a lot of really pretty girls in school



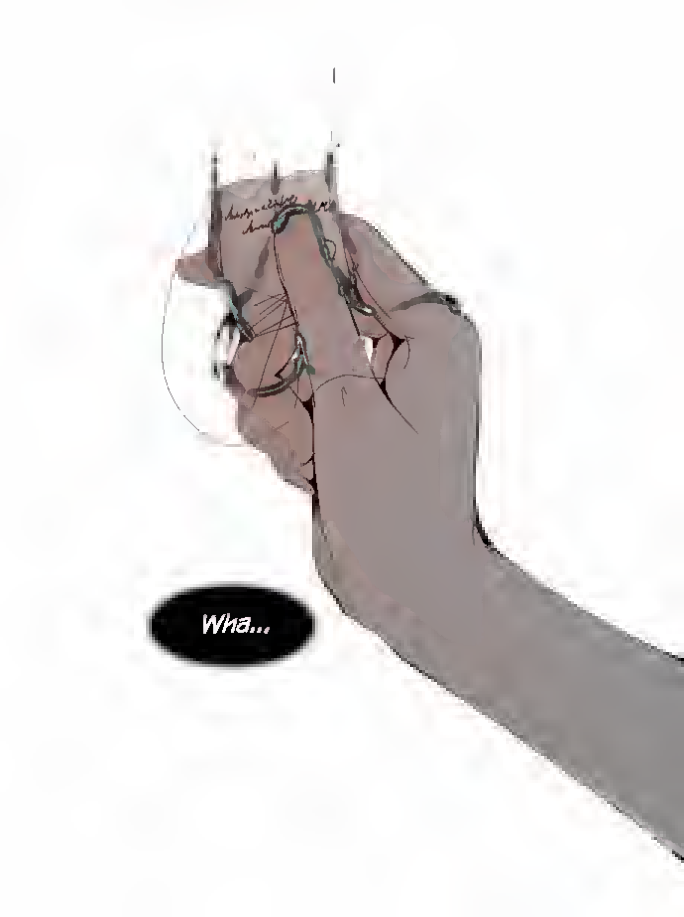
"Still, I'm okay!"

Because you have faith in... hihehehe...
Hah...
Hahaha...
KYAA! HOW COULD SHE SAY THAT?

Heke.
Hahaha...
Hehehe...
W-What's happening?

Senika,

I...



Wha...

What was that?
.....!

Who was...

...that girl?

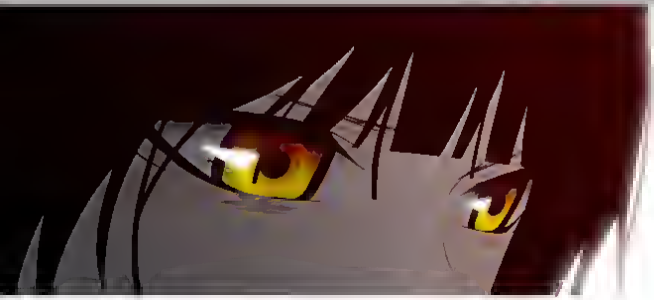
THIS ISN'T EVERYTHING!!
WHO'S THE GIRL NEXT TO MY DAD?!
I DON'T CARE ABOUT THE PASSWORD, SO TELL ME WHO SHE IS!!

Damn it!!!

You didn't want me to open it because you thought I'd get pulled into something dangerous?

Saying that so calmly...

Even though you already knew everything...



Even though you've known for 200 years!!!

Even though you already knew everything,-

Even though you've known for 200 years!!!

Let's just do as much as Mom taught us to do.

The 73rd cabinet.

Hey, Doctor! You should have saved me!
I totally thought you were the doctor, haha.
Hey, that's enough! You've already said too much!

Huh? What are you playing?
Who's that?
Oh, we're in the middle of playing Mafia. Do you wish to join us?

No, I want to read.
Don't you like the game?!
They told us to not bother the transfer, you otaku
Ah, that's right! My bad!

I must stop before the Grand Kaishin finds out!
Ajussi,
I don't know what you're trying to hide from me...
But I just can't ignore this.

Why have you come to me?

Of course it's best to ramp up the specialized courses, but will the children be able to adjust?
They don't even [illegible] the basics, but you still want them to take intensive courses.
Ah, about that. We originally intended a month's time as an adjustment period, but something rather important came up in the Yeoha-dan, so, Anyway, I don't know what to say. We should talk more after asking the children for their opinions.

Ah... Okay!

I will see you later during the staff meeting, then
TEN
Stuck-up jerk.

Why don't you yell at him like you do at me?
Slam!
Whatever. Just tell me why you wanted to speed up the coursework
I know you have a reason, right?

It's no big deal. There's just something bothering me a little.

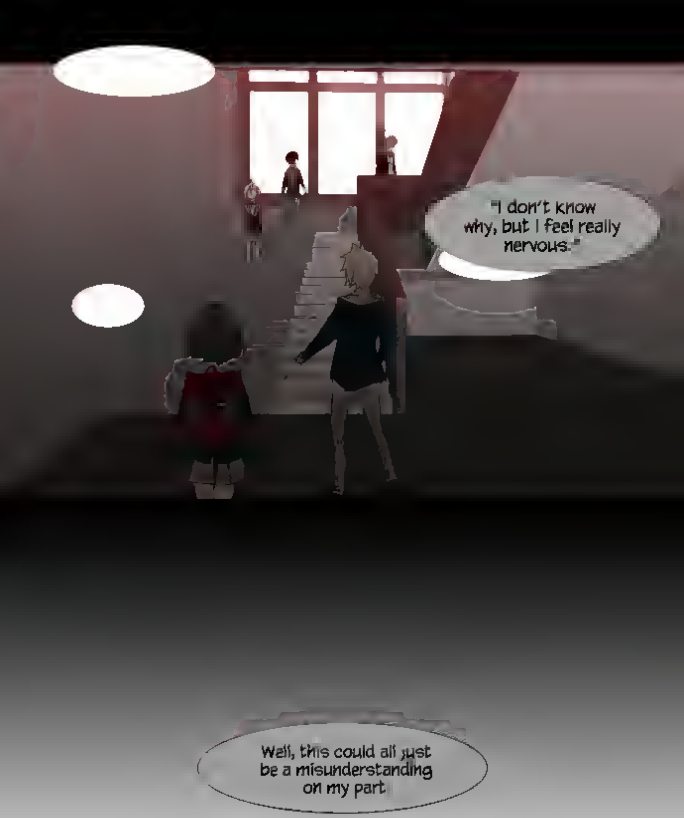
When you're out patrolling, you sometimes come across kids who are afraid of policemen, right?

That's because, you know, they think something they've done is much more horrible than it actually is. So th- believe they'll be taken away At least, that's my theory

It's one of those simple ideas that only kids seem to have.

It was the same sort of thing with Kashin's foster son.

"Oh, how scary!"



"I don't know why, but I feel really nervous."
Well, this could all just be a misunderstanding on my part.

But I changed the direction of the investigation a lilittle bit, and guess what I found?

I think I just discovered something huge.

Should I tell you, Sena? Or should I just keep it to myself?

W-What is it?

OH, MY GOD!!
And that's not all.

February 29th, the "Melly Day Case".
Among the unfortunate members of Team A...

...there was an officer, Hwoon, from my district.

The kid's reaction makes sense if you consider that he may have confused me for Hyoon.
.....!
If we listed him as a suspect, and got permission to investigate him, I'm pretty sure my theory will prove true.
Anyway, let's keep this a secret for now, and tell the boss that everything is going well.
Why?! It's an opportunity for us to get promoted!

I documented everything, so just keep up the surveillance on Kashin and Nori

This game is too dead to run it with spoilers

.....
No matter how much I think, I can't figure out a way.

I need to open the cabinet.

To do that, I need the password

Why the hell do we need something like that?

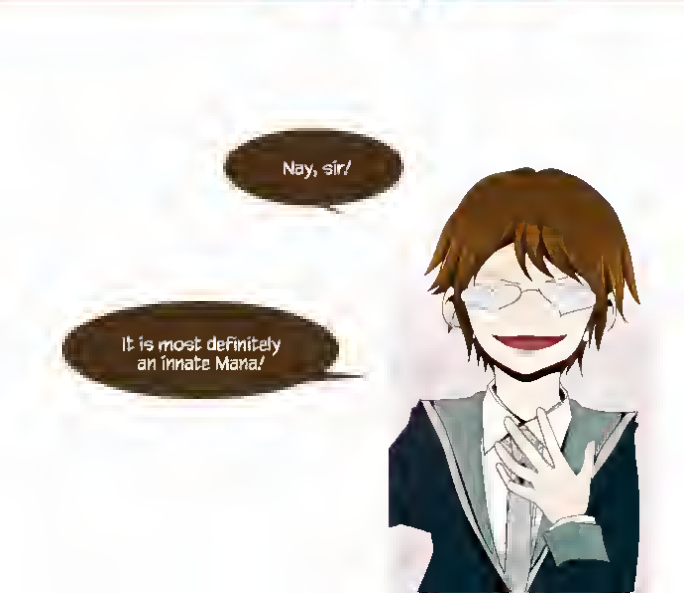
I am the only one who can open it. Just make that the rule.

That's what the bracelet says.

Which means only Dad can open it.

Oh, Great Hyacen! Have you heard? A Mana experiencing course will be added this trimester!
'Tis a good opportunity to sharpen your crown skills, Great Hyacen!
Uh.. What?

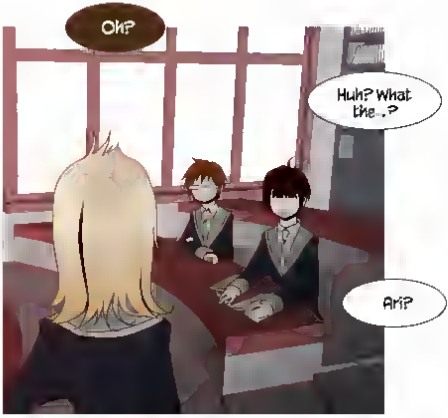
That! The moving crown!
Perchance it's your own innate Mana!
This? Everyone can do this, though



Nay, sir!
It is most definitely an innate Mana!

There are only two others in our class possessing innate Mana.
The top king, Bize, and the Queen of Class 2, Sirang!
What?

Why are you bringing up that jerk?
Hey



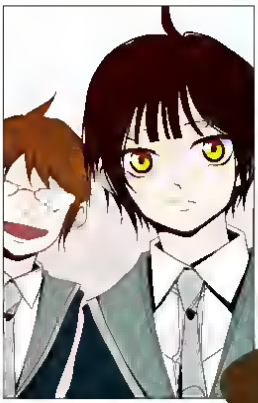
Oh?
Huh? What the..?
Ari?

Your hair's different!

This is my natural hair color.

I colored it with magic, but I got caught earlier.

To think that no magic is allowed on campus – how lame



Aha! Coloring hair with magic! What a great idea!

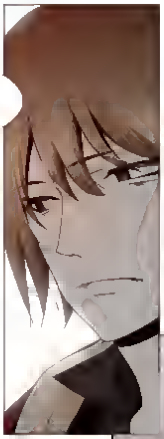
Miss Sena was asking about you yesterday, so I'm really curious!

She's just being silly.

And you're showing a lot more interest than she is

It's not that! She seems really interested in you!



.....

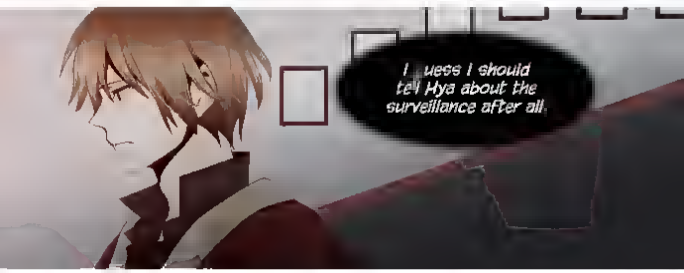
Well, of course.

They're keeping an eye on me.

Well then, I'll see you later in class. Good luck with your classes!

To think that they would start the specialized courses earlier...

Could it be that even Hya is...?



I guess I should tell Hya about the surveillance after all.

Good morning!
C II
Whoa!! The Great Kashin!!
We still have some time before class ends!

Is there something you'd like to ask of us?!
No. I just came to see Hyd for a bit.

Hyacen went on a date with Ari. There's totally something going on between them
I saw them leave together earlier!
I'll pass on a message to Hyacen when he comes back, so tell us.
It's okay.
Just tell him to come to the office when he comes back.
Okay
It's not that urgent.

It should be fine

Really?

Apparently the owner of this cabinet had red hair.
So if I color my hair red, it should open!
What a strange theory...
Tap

Hmm... So, red?
Yes! Not really red red, but more of a dark red!
In return, I have to tell me what's inside
Okie doke!

It's really easy for me.

I THINK I PRETTY MUCH LOOK LIKE DAD.

IF EVEN THIS DOESN'T WORK, WHAT THE HECK DO I HAVE TO DO?!

DAMN IT.

do I open it?

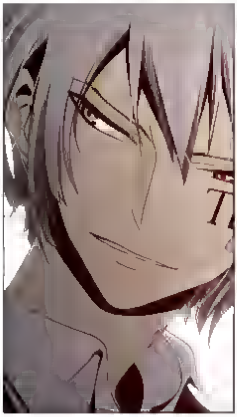
Don't be so surprised. I just came here because I heard that a girl was in the boys' dormitory
Ah...
A cop!
A cop came all the way here...?
Ari... My classmate, Ari, came here. I called her here to hang out.
I'll be more careful in the future. Goodbye.
—?

Dash



You're going out looking like that?

I bet Kashin would faint if he saw you.

Freeze.

As the son of a criminal, you should be prepared to face situations like these.

Fine.

I don't know how to lie, and I have no idea how much you know exactly. I'll just tell you everything.

Ran Belrenephia is my dad.
But what about it?
I didn't do anything wrong. I might be a witness, but there's no reason for me to be subject to punishment.

You're pretty smart.
You're absolutely right. Guilt by association in this time and age? Nonsense.
I'll be frank. I just want to play a game of reasoning against you, Kashin, and Ran.
Of course, it's a game with your lives at stake.

Your adoptive father won't sit quietly when he finds out that I've discovered your existence.

I wonder... Will I just disappear off the face of the earth when it happens?

Disappear, like your biological father did on Melly Day, after killing every officer in sight to conceal your existence?

That's the kind of man your father is.

That's impossible.

Is it?
I know him. I was the one closest to him.
Yeah, it's impossible. It doesn't fit. No more of this.
It keeps turning strange.
.....

Dad...

...was smart, and always calm.

Wow...

But...

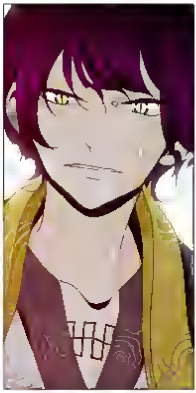
...this guy doesn't even know anything. How dare he say such things about Dad?!

If I tell Kashin that my identity was discovered, he'll definitely try to protect me.
But what if I don't tell him? What if the police get to him first? What will happen to us then?
Hyacen?

Whoa!! You really became Ran, just like Kashin said!
What were you thinking, dyeing your hair like this?!
Ajussi?

What do you mean, "just like Kashin said?" Does he already know that I colored my hair?

Does he?!



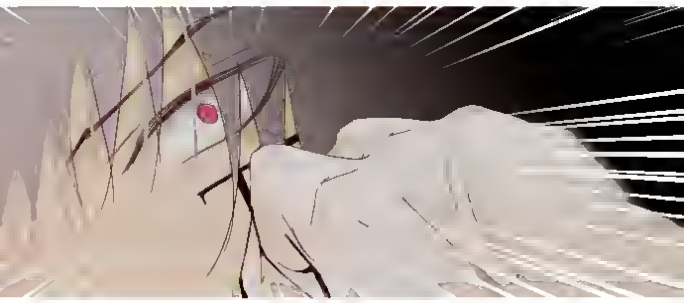
Nori.

As headmaster, I know you're busy, but please go to Hya

What about you?

Who...?

Me?



I'm Hya's father, you bastard.

Oops.

Sorry.

Beating up a cop is obstruction of justice.

But then, I really don't see you as a cop, so I ended up punching you anyway.

Considering what you did to my son, why don't we call it eve—
What?

You hit me with all your might and you want me to let it go?

You wanna die?

Well, you took such active interest in my son, so I thought you wanted a beating.
Gee, I'm sorry if it hurt

If you keep talking, you're asking to die.
Do whatever you want.
.....
.....

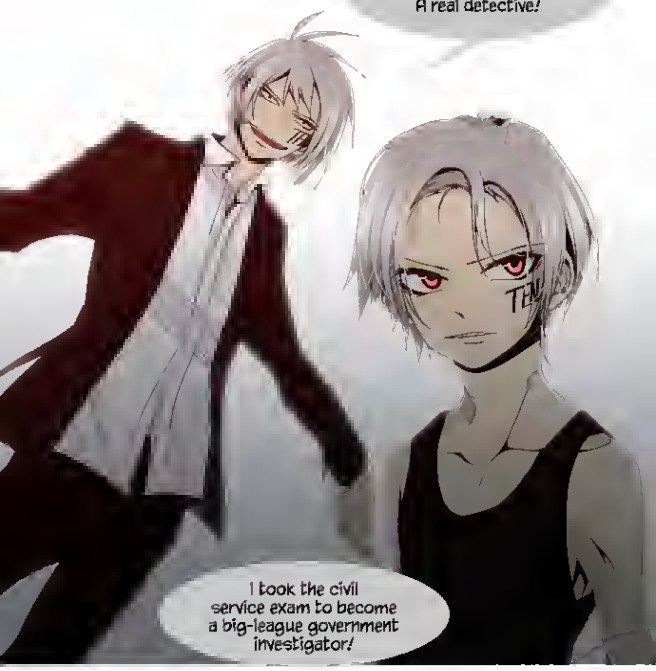
Hahaha...

Fine. I discovered lots of interesting things today, so I'll let it go.

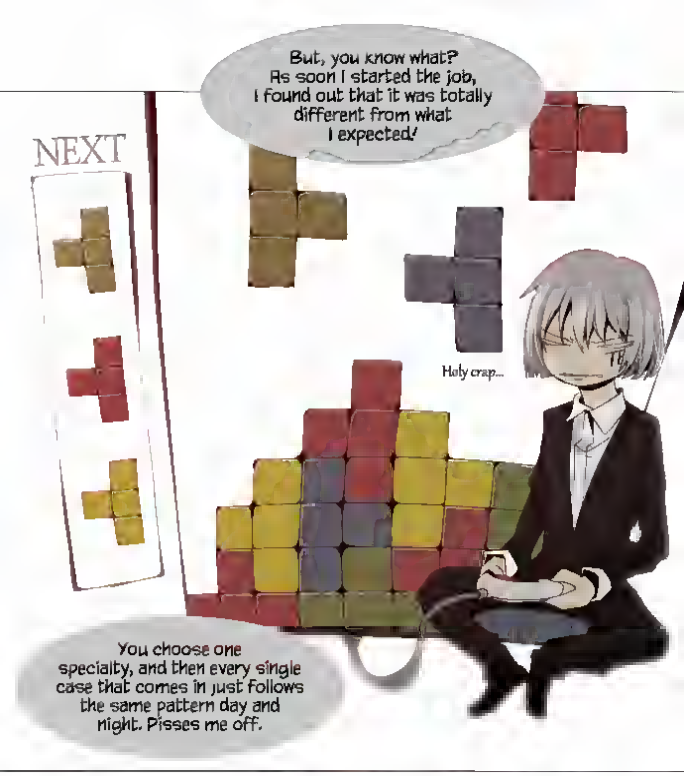
I'm a maniac for deductive reasoning.

I dreamed of becoming a detective ever since I was little.

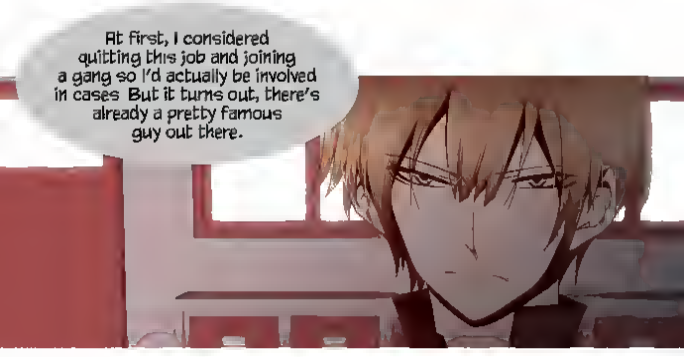
The type of detective who solves mysteries! A real detective!



I took the civil service exam to become a big-league government investigator!

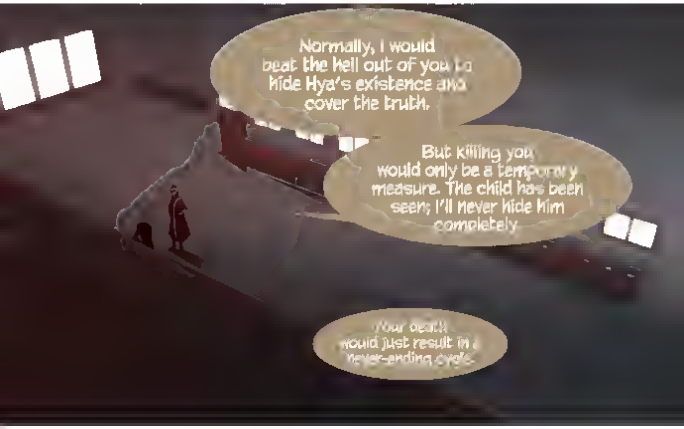


But, you know what? As soon I started the job, I found out that it was totally different from what I expected.
NEXT
Holy crap...
You choose one specialty, and then every single case that comes in just follows the same pattern day and night. Pisses me off.



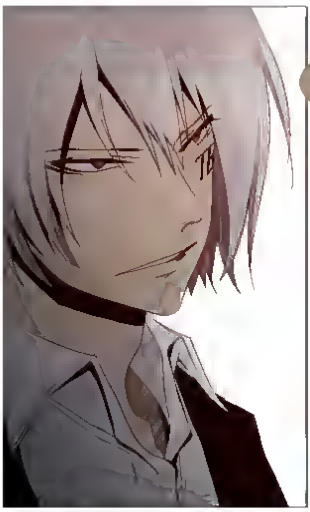
At first, I considered quitting this job and joining a gang so I'd actually be involved in cases. But it turns out, there's already a pretty famous guy out there.

Ran Beirenephia, with a bounty of 1.8 billion.
Then we can make this fairly quick.



Normally, I would beat the hell out of you to hide Hya's existence and cover the truth.
But killing you would only be a temporary measure. The child has been seen; I'll never hide him completely.
Your death would just result in a never-ending cycle.

So let's consider this. What if we can have a cease-fire, and still keep your investigation as interesting [illegible]?
Are you suggesting a deal?
Something [illegible]



So? Interested?

Smirk

If I were you, I'd accept out of sheer curiosity.

How would I, a friend of over 200 years, stab Ran in the back while still protecting his son?

Let's just do as much as Mom taught us to do.

The 73rd cabinet.

〈Trump〉 @이채은
cafe.naver.com/sinceby1991
twitter.com/ban1991

Stay still.
This side is a bit...

Okay, I think it's done.
This'll have to do for now.
What do I do now?

That cop already knew about me.
If this goes on, even Kashin ajussi will be in danger for protecting me.
I can't make Kashin ajussi into a criminal because of something between me and my dad.

Kashin will be okay.
Probably.

You want to sell Ran out?

Look, just kill the cop and go back to your hermit life!!
Face the reality, Nori.
We have a father who neglected his son to follow a twisted path, and a son who keeps waiting for that father.
As the guardian—

...for the sake of his emotional growth, I can't keep Hya secluded like that again.
BUT SELLING OUT RAN? YOU CAN'T DO THAT!!
It's not a good situation, but since it happened, I have to make the best of it.

You already figured this out, haven't you?

Hya's been whining about going to school, though he didn't really care, and I've been brushing him off, though I knew he wasn't serious.

What's the best?

What's the most practical way to solve the situation?

As long as Hya's with me, he's in danger of police scrutiny.
Considering that, why kill the cop and compound the crime? Why not get him to join our side?
So from the beginning, you brought Hya here in order to double-cross Ran.
Of course.
I'm sorry, but I'm Hya's guardian, not Ran's.

The police are probably having a tough time locating Ran.

Life

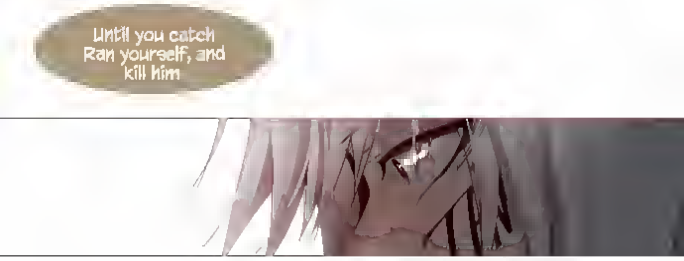
Plus, if your goal is a game of deductive reasoning, isn't this a perfect deal?

If you refuse, I'd have no choice but to kill you and go back to a life of seclusion.

That would be terribly boring

What are your terms?

Go back to headquarters and tell them that Nori and I are cleared of all suspicions. Then fix things so that from now on, Hya will not be involved in the investigation.
If you manage to do this well, I will provide you with even more help.



Until you catch Ran yourself, and kill him

You're nuts!

You're giving me something really good, there's no way I'd refuse.

Fidget
And by the way, a bruise stops hurting if a pretty woman gives it a kiss
WAIT... KASHIN? KASHIN DID THIS TO YOU?!

I TOLD YOU, WHEN YOU GET HIT, YOU HAVE TO HIT BACK!!
WHY THE HELL DID YOU LET HIM GO?!

GO ROUGH HIM UP!!
DON'T LIE DOWN AND TAKE A BEATING FROM AN OLD GEEZER LIKE THAT!
But I'm not the kind of guy to get fired up enough to risk my life on something like this...

Anyway calm down and have a seat I got something pretty good.
Something good?
What's this? Are you setting me up with a date?
It's Ran's most recent picture.

He wants to make a deal with Ran as payment.

We made an agreement.
Most likely, he also has a Roman numeral 7 marked on his body.

Basically, I can challenge an opponent and choose the rules of the game.
The space and time limits,

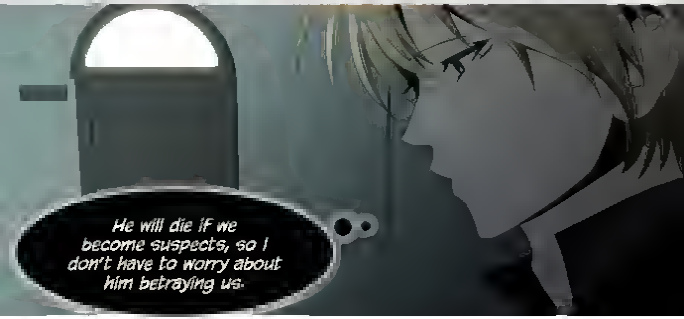
...the criteria for victory.
The clearing conditions.
...and the players who stand to gain or lose in this game with its infinitely many rules and agreements.

We are now a part of the game called VII

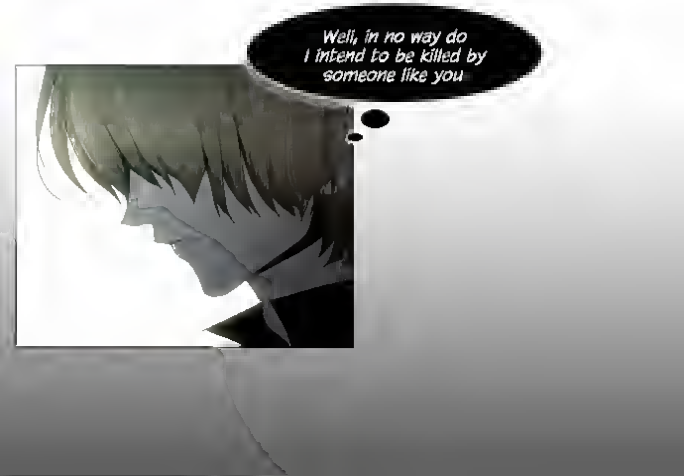
I have become a chess piece in the game. I will not reveal details of the investigation of Kashin and Nori to outsiders.
Moreover, I will leave false trails in the investigation so that those around you, including Hyacen, will not fall under suspicion.
In return, you will provide me with information on Ran.
Of course, you only need to tell me things I ask about, within the scope of your knowledge.
If you go against this, or lie to me...

You'll die.



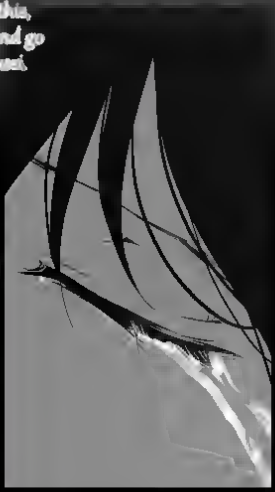
He will die if we become suspects, so I don't have to worry about him betraying us.

Cooperation by necessity... Is it usually like this?
We could figure out a way to kill each other if we thought hard enough.
Step
Step



Well, in no way do I intend to be killed by someone like you

Even if I'm like this, don't you leave and go somewhere, Ajussi.



If you do,

I'll really be all alone.

...not until Hyacen is able to accept reality and be independent.

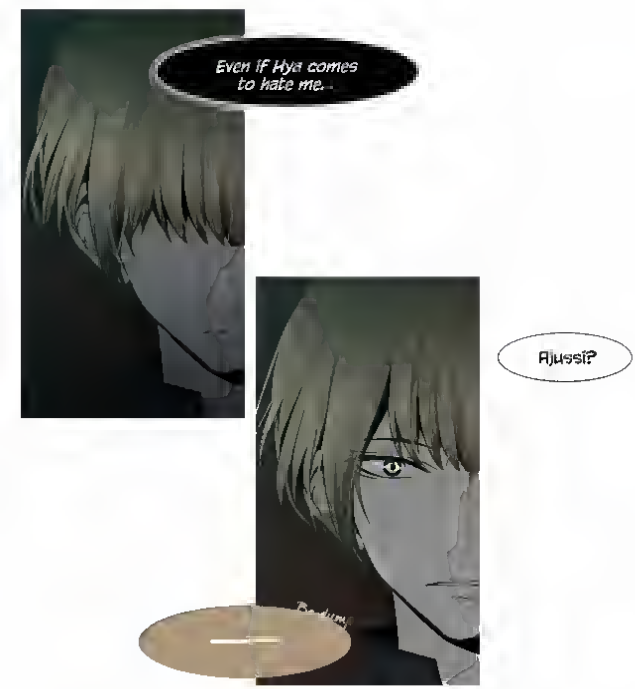
I have to tell Hya the truth.
It's better for his future after all, if his father is not in the equation.



Even if Hya comes to hate me...
Ajussi?

Hya?
I thought you'd be here.
Am I bothering you?

N-No...
But why are you here?

I heard from Nori ajussi.
You already knew about me coloring my hair.

I'm sorry.
I came to tell you that.
I'm so sorry.
You told me not to, but I kept trying to open the cabinet.

Ever since I found out that it contained memories of you and my dad, I acted recklessly, without thought.

That's how I found out that Dad had a girlfriend
No...
Honestly, I think I was being stubborn because you were hiding something from me, not because of the things with Dad.

I wasn't careful and the cop found out that I was a criminal's son.
What if something happens to you because I keep acting this way?
Of course, I'm not trying to make any excuses ..

...and I'm not trying to put you in a bind either.

That cabinet - only your mom can open it.

"Senka" is the trigger for the 73rd cabinet, after all

Is she...
Is she really my mom?
Yes.
I won't hide anything anymore.
After what happened today, I planned to tell you everything later, but you came and found me here. I'm thankful for that. And Hya, I'm also sorry.

I will explain everything to you. All about the 73rd cabinet, and all about your mom.

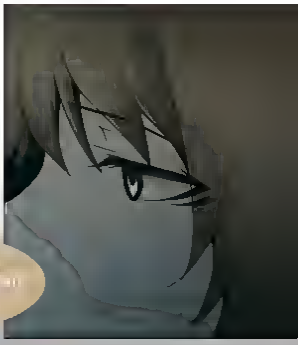
I've mentioned this in class before. Mana skills are evaluated

Completeness, stability and Materialization skills — those three?

There are people born with Mana that can't be evaluated because it goes off scale, beyond Level 10 in one of those skills. Others have Mana hovering above Level 7. They are sometimes considered "Highly Dangerous Mana Users."
Air Mana had an Omnipotence
And I possess Air Mana.

It was definitely dangerous.

to openly expose my Mana without knowing when or where it could be abused



That's why I grew up isolated, separate [illegible] the rest of soc[illegible]

OUCH! STOP!! YOU'LL RIP MY SCALP OFF!!

Doesn't this bother them?

Idiots who have no concept of what this place is, or even who they are?

A place that lacks any sense of time or danger...

Let's just do as much as Mom taught us to do.

There were three children trapped in a cage called protection

I'm going now.

Let's eat lettuce, Yummy-yum!!
An idiot

And a psycho

Those two uncivilized guys,

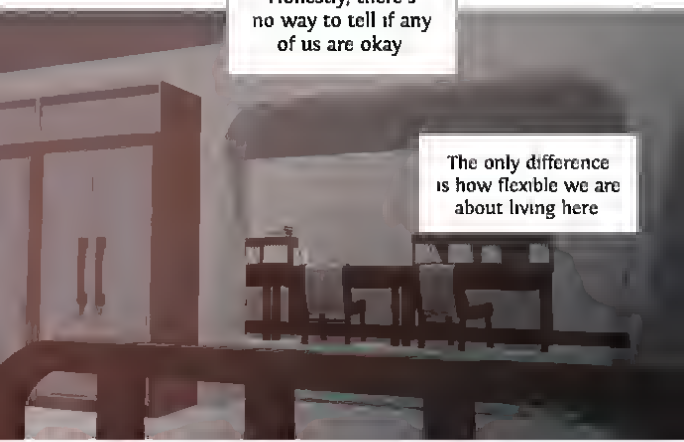
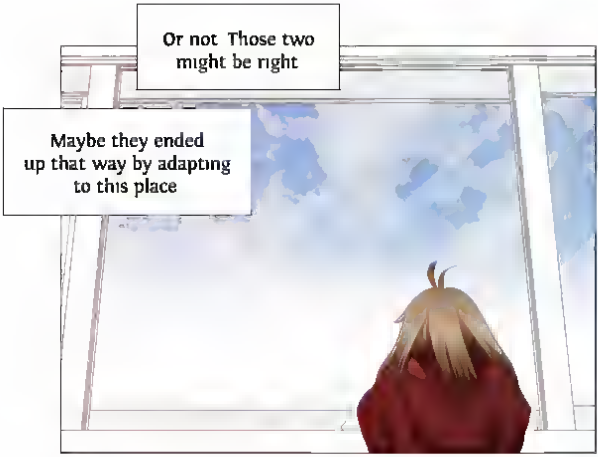
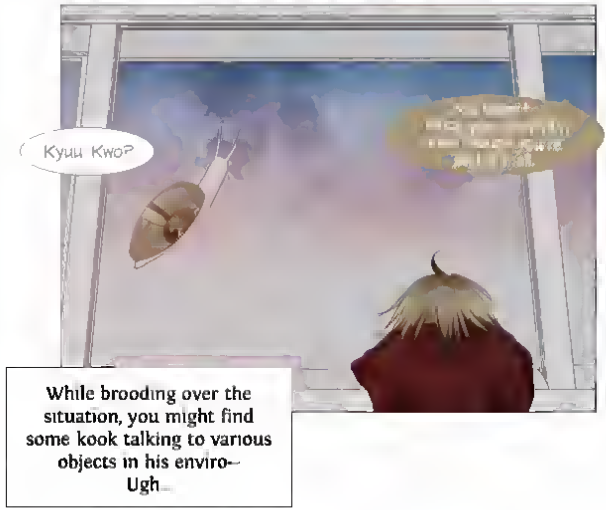
And me



Honestly, there's no way to tell if any of us are okay
The only difference is how flexible we are about living here



Or not Those two might be right
Maybe they ended up that way by adapting to this place



Куии Кwo?
While brooding over the situation, you might find some kook talking to various objects in his enviro--
Ugh...

And another distraction appears.

I'm not the type of guy who will blithely go along with all of your shenanigans.
You'll never win so stop picking fights with me
Don't order me around, ugly.
How is that an order? I'm telling you Don't just things you don't want to hear. Listen
Why? Why do I have to do that?

If you're always going to be like that, why on earth do you talk to me?

And since we're on the topic, you pick fights with anyone, anywhere, all the time, and you grab people's hair whenever things don't go your way. Where the heck did you learn to act that way?

Why? Why do you want to know where I learnt it?

Ugh. Just shut up.

The situation we're in bothers me enough already.

So please, stop adding to my worries and just...

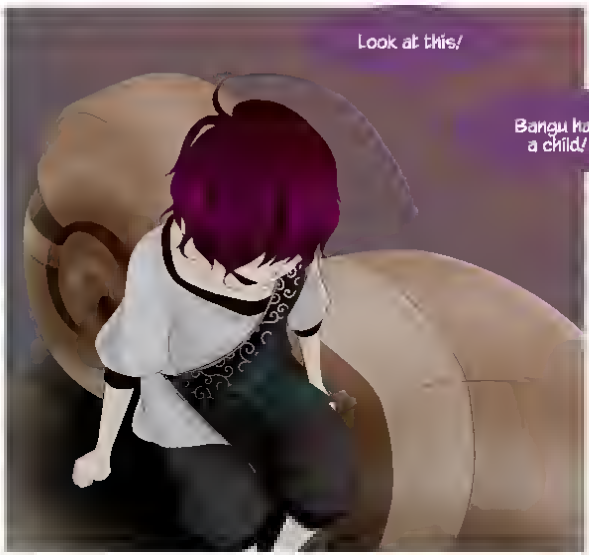
Just like that, a long time passed.

The whole time, it always sucked to be stuck in that place.
But Ran's violence seemed to subside a bit, and I got better at ignoring Nori's stupidity

If he could just stop provoking me, I'm sure that from now on...

Ran!



From now on...?

Whoa, what's that? Is that really Bangu?
Yeah! She's my mom!

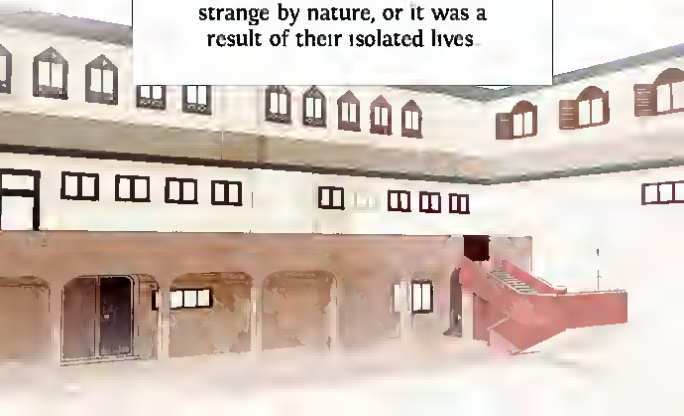
Around 200 years ago,

There lived three rather strange children. Perhaps they were strange by nature, or it was a result of their isolated lives.



First, there is me.

Boo! Boo!

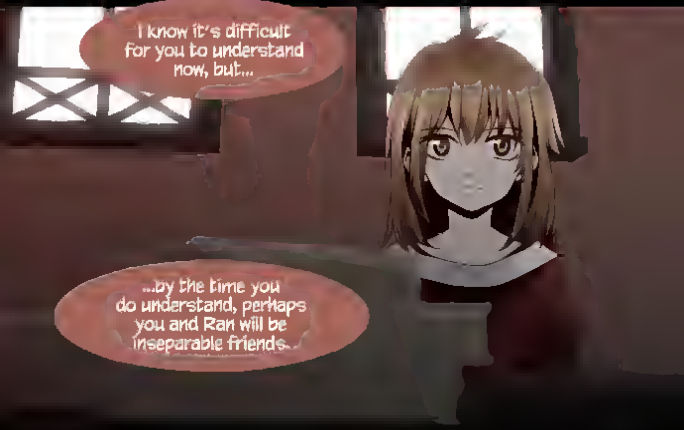
And go crawl back out.

You mean Ran?
There's nothing we can do.
He's got a screw loose and does whatever he wants. He's really a problem child.
It's a personality disorder.

I thought so. The way he talks and thinks are so different.
Hmm... Still, try to get along with him. He's not a bad kid.
I have no idea how to treat him.
It probably wouldn't make any difference.
After all, in this world, nothing is ever perfect.

No matter what choice you make, you can't choose a perfect road.

Your choices can only make the road longer or shorter.



I know it's difficult for you to understand now, but...

WHAT THE HECK DID I DO WRONG?!
LET GO OF ME!

URGH!

SFX: Crash

The problem...
Is that you went into that room.

Don't you dare...

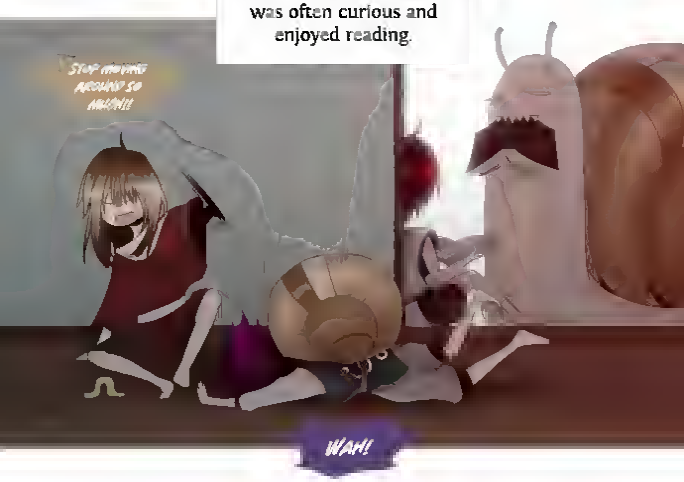
If you do,
...I really will kill you.

His looks, at first glance,with his sharp eyes and menacing glare, could have been mistaken for a fierce girl

At times, he was rude or did strange things,

...but otherwise, he was an ordinary guy. He was often curious and enjoyed reading.



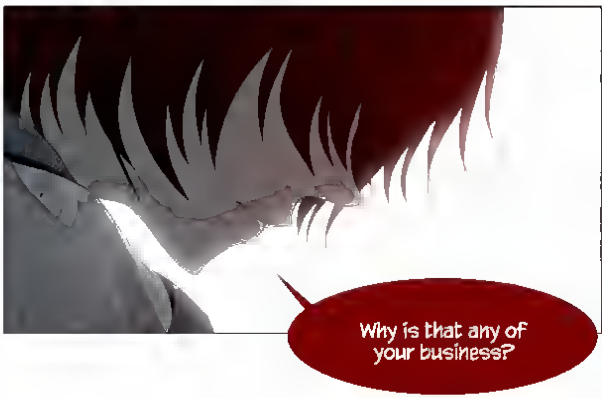
He also liked to play outside and pull pranks. Just your average reckless guy--

--Or not. I guess he was much too violent to be "your average reckless guy," but I still didn't think he was that bad

Did something happen...

What is this facility?

And what's with that snail?

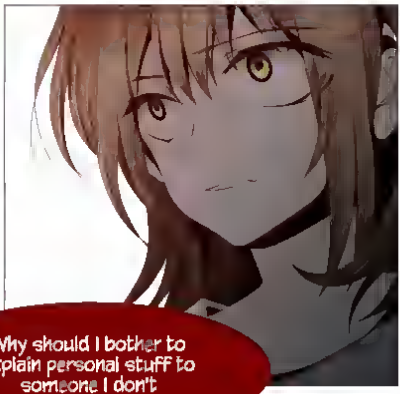


How can you say that?!

Even though I came here a bit later, we're all living together here!
So why are you hiding things from me?! Or are you saying I don't have the right to know?!

If I have the right, then tell me!!
What is this place, and what the heck is up with that snail? Who is that girl?
Why do I have to tell you?

No matter if you have the right, I just don't wanna tell you.



Why should I bother to explain personal stuff to someone I don't even like?

You...

YOU BASTARD!!!

SFX: Shatter

For dragging me out, and for trying to kill me. Apologize.
If you do that, I won't ask you any more questions.

It's hard to breathe because of your Air...

Do you happen to know what Mana is?

Mana involves the instinctual use of magic,

It's inside of us, just like blood, and follows the will of the host.

That's the basic gist Mana is evaluated on Completeness, Stability, and Materialization, or its form

Well then, what is Air?
Air is one of the essential elements that makes up the world
It is so extensive that even I, as a host, cannot estimate its risks

That's because all animals and plants on Earth...

...include air, fundamentally.

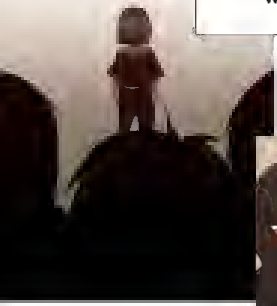
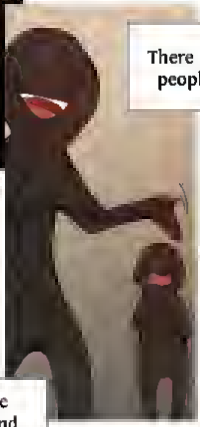
And so, no matter what I want, "Air" has always been like my second name.

I had Air Mana, and that power captured the world's attention



There are two types of people in the world



Those who try to use my powers for evil, and those who stand back in fear, whispering about me from afar

My power is a miracle of the Creator,

_but I never wanted it
All I want is a normal life

I didn't like the creepy guys in this twisted place,

And I didn't like living in a cage

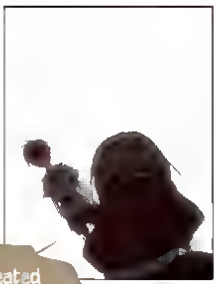
What... did I... do wrong?



Why am I treated
this way?

You're the one hiding something
YOU'RE THE ONE WHO DID SOMETHING WRONG!!!

YOU WEREN'T EVEN HERE, SO WHY ARE YOU GETTING MAD AT ME?!
RAN STARTED IT!
Think about it.
Of course I'm mad!

As you manipulate Air, you are most exposed. If you had exerted the tiniest bit more power back then,

You'd have died.

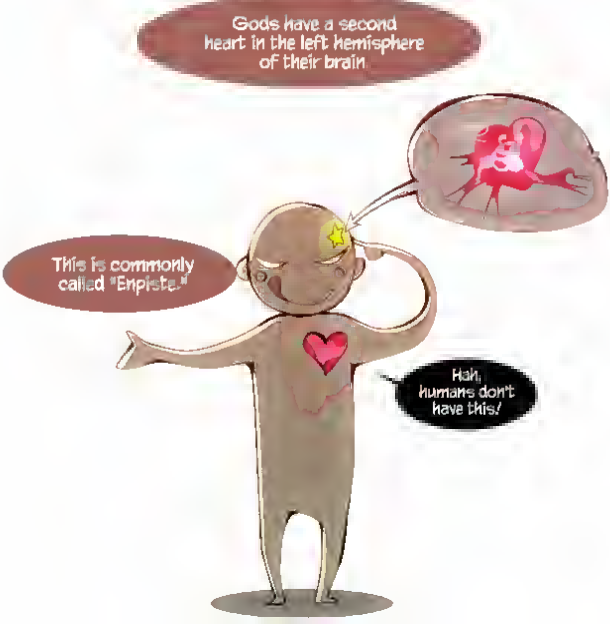
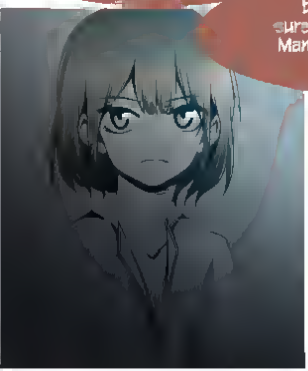
Blood pressure: normal.
Pulse: stable.

You seem to be fine but there might be some aftereffects, so we'll keep an eye on you for a while
Don't move around much and be extra careful with your neck.
What about him?
Ran hurt his head, so he'll be asleep for a while.
He'll probably wake up around noon, so don't worry too much.
Besides, your condition is far worse than Ran's.
You're the one who used the Air Mana, after all.



Gods have a second heart in the left hemisphere of their brain
This is commonly called "Enpiste."
Hah, humans don't have this!

Your Enpiste is optimized for controlling the atmosphere which is [illegible] your innate Mana is ca ed Air Mana
But Air Mana has an indefinite range, and its Completeness is also undefined, making it a Highly Dangerous Mana.
As long as you must breathe, your body is affected by your own Mana.
Куши?
That means your body experiences a much higher strain, since it manipulates the air directly.
Tadadada
Tadadada
Ratatata
Ratatata
I'm Air, your friend.
Damaged by my own ally!



I left the facility despite knowing all this, thinking that you surely wouldn't use your Mana against the other children here.

I tried to act mature

But then that snail grew into a weird giant...
...and for some reason, they started to turn into snails themselves.

And I thought Nori, Ran, and I were the only ones in the whole place, but that wasn't true, either.
Okay, so fine, I still could have handled all that.

But then came the real problem.
We never did get along very well in the first place.
But it's not like we actually wanted each other dead.
This time, though, Ran went overboard.

I made a totally reasonable request, but he threw a fit and started to attack me,
...and then he used Mana to try and kill me.

It's fine now. I don't even want to know anymore.
As soon as I'm better, I am getting out of here.
I'd rather stay alone than live like this
.....
That's... a bit sad.
It must've been hard to go through that, especially since you don't know anything.
I know.
You didn't do anything wrong, but you were suddenly attacked, and he wouldn't even tell you why.
Even an adult would get angry in that situation.

Still, don't hate him too much.
He's just not good with such things.

To be honest, I was the one who suggested keeping Senka a secret from you until Ran was ready to tell you himself.
I hoped Ran would eventually open up to you. But with the situation like this already, I'll tell you everything.

The girl you saw is Senika.

She actually has no immunity to Mana whatsoever.

She cannot stand other people's Mana. If she's left alone, there's no telling when she'll die.

Well, normally Mana doesn't influence the environment, so it's fine.

But your Air Mana is a bit different.
It's your own Mana, so you don't seem to notice that it seeps out of you and is always around you.
Senka wasn't able to withstand it.

Her first symptoms looked like some kind of vitamin deficiency.
But it was the effect of Air Mana in her surroundings.
What's with that face? Silly.
Senika's health started deteriorating.
My hair will grow back in no time!
Despite her condition, she keeps bright and cheerful.
She was more concerned about Ran than herself, thinking that he would start to hate

...what went on...

...in Ran's mind?

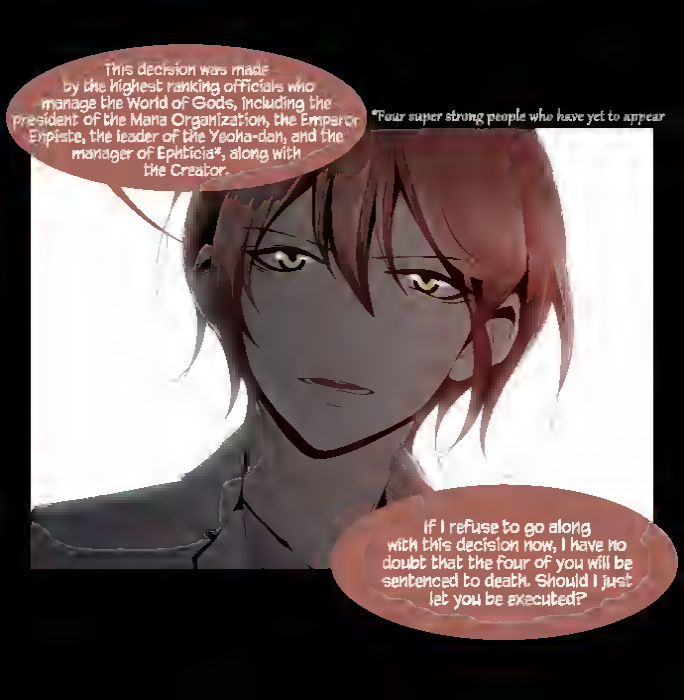
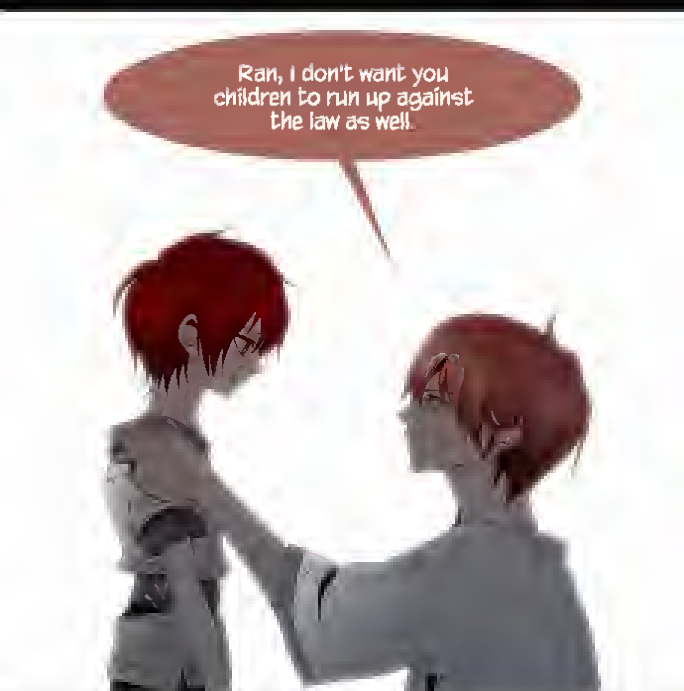
PSYHEE, ARE YOU NUTS?!
KICK HIM OUT, RIGHT NOW!!

FOR SURE, THEY'LL RUN INTO EACH OTHER IF THEY'RE IN THE SAME HOUSE!
IT'LL LEAD STRAIGHT TO DISASTER!!
Calm down and have a seat.
IT'S ONLY BEEN A DAY, AND SENIKA'S CONDITION IS SO MUCH WORSE! HOW THE HELL CAN I CALM DOWN ?!
The Mana organization already employs more than a hundred people to research a Mana vaccine.
6 months of research, and 6 months of testing and more experiment
Exactly one year, the situation might change

I'M TELLING YOU, I DON'T LIKE IT!
Can't we just... Can't the three of us stay here alone and not take such a huge risk?
We've been doing great so far. So why bring this Kashin weirdo into the picture?!
This will also benefit you.
HOW THE HELL DOES IT BENEFIT US IF SENIKA GETS SICK, HUH?!



This decision was made by the highest ranking officials who manage the World of Gods, including the president of the Mana Organization, the Emperor Enpiste, the leader of the Yeoha-dan, and the manager of Ephticia*, along with the Creator.
*Four super strong people who have yet to appear
If I refuse to go along with this decision now, I have no doubt that the four of you will be sentenced to death. Should I just let you be executed?



A few years ago, my precious friend, a Syniez who turned imagination into reality, also met such a tragic end.

Syniez: A child, such as Melly, who can turn things such as imagination, thoughts, dreams, images, etc. into reality.

I won't let anyone else die in that manner, ever again

Something is seriously messed up
Just because our Mana is a bit special...
...we have to die?

They trap Mana users in facilities like this and kill them, simply because they're considered a threat to the rest of the world. What a convenient excuse.
In the end, they're just trying to get rid of everyone with Mana stronger than theirs.

Living with him would be easy as pie. I could tolerate that.
The problem is his Air Mana. We don't know its effect on Senika.

Who knows if the vaccine will be ready in a year. Even if it is, it'll be impossible to keep Senika a secret from him for such a long time.
To make things worse, if the research is a failure, nothing will change at all.
We would be at a dead end.

If Senika gets worse during that time...

So here you are.

Hey that... uhh... what's his name?
Anyway, that weird kid was looking for you
What?
Weird kid?
Purple hair
Who else could it be? Do you really think I'd call PsyHee that?

There's only me, you, that Kid, and PsyHee in this whole place

Oh, yeah...

As I thought...

...I need to come up with something soon

Let's just do as much as Mom taught us to do.

The 73rd cabinet.

Hey, Ran.
Did you see Kaishin?
Have you two teamed up to bother me?

I just thought you'd always be near him to keep an eye on him!
I'm busy, so don't give me that crap and get out of my face.
Awn... But I wanted to show this off...
Lookie!
It rained yesterday, so there are lots of snails outside!

It sorta looks like Kashin
Serika might freak if she sees that, so get rid of it.
Nope! She told me that it's all curly, like my hair!

Lettuce and a snail. Perfect.
Get married, it's a match made in heaven.
Crawl
Crawl
How can I marry something that looks so weird?!
And PsyHee said that snails aren't living creatures. They're just vortices.

There's a vortex inside their shells, so they get sucked in!
That's why they always look so ugly and bloated like they soaked up a bunch of water.
Isn't that cool?!
Seriously!
Why do I care about how it's sucked in or whatever?
I'm too worried about Senka, so stop your nonsense and—

Sucked in?

Hey, gimme that!
Dash
What do you mean, "that"? Be more tactful.
His name is Banggu! Isn't he cute?
From now on, I'll only lend him to you if you call him by his proper name.
……

Holy crap.

...a genius.

Stop with the questions. Be glad I'm even noticing you, noob.
Is he mad at me or something...?
What are you doing?
Good. Don't you dare open your eyes.

Don't open your eyes yet.
If you do, an invisible force will chop off your head.
Pak
Invisible? You mean you?
Right here...
Whatcha doing?
None of your business Scram.
I told you to not open your eyes.
SFX. Flash

Is that what you meant when you called yourself a genius?!

Turning Kashin into a snail... That's too much!
It's something I had to do.
Had to do?
It's only been a day since that new guy got here, but Senka is already having problems.
The Organization says they're developing a vaccine, but we don't know when it'll be done for sure. I can't just sit on my hands and do nothing.

So I came up with that solution. Flow Reflecting magic.
Flow Reflecting magic? Isn't that for combat?
It's when you take someone's Mana, turn it once and throw it back at them.
I'm using that basic technique.

It's not a Mana for attacking. It won't do any damage, even if it touches the host.
If I reflect his Mana back at him, the noob won't be hurt at all.

If you reflect the Mana from your right thumb to your left index finger, it won't affect your body at all.
But it would be impossible to do this with a large quantity of Air Mana.
And then, you came in with your snail, and gave me the idea of the "vortex."
Though it failed 'cause of that stupid snail shell fing out.
Isn't Kashin going to notice that, though?

Not at all.

Thanks to that blunder, I got an even more brilliant idea.

The newbie's hair.

I'll use this to make a magic snail that won't die even if it eats Kashin's Mana.

A magic snail?!

We'll alter the genes of your snail to give it complete immunity to Kaskin's Mana.

Of course, it'd be much better to do this directly to Senka. But we can't experiment on her, so we'll just use the snail as a trial.

A magic snail able to absorb all of Kaskin's Mana...

A great idea, but it'll probably only be effective within three meters.

This will definitely work.

Hey noob. Are you really that strong?
I heard that you ruined a whole field of yams. Show me your skills.
What am I, a circus animal?
R-Ran! How can you joke like that?

Stop wasting my time and come at me.
Or are you too scared?
Ran is... serious about this

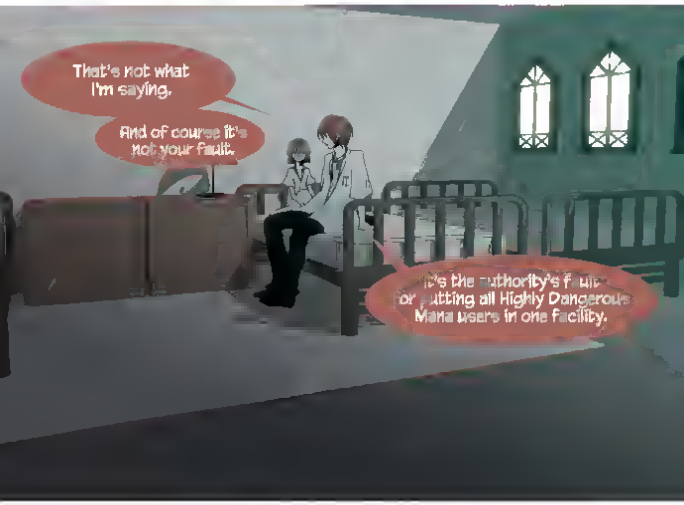
But...

Even when Kashin used no Mana...
Thud
Куш?
Ran Behrenephia,
1 fight: 0 wins, 1 loss.

In the end, the snail was never completed.
Its ridiculous growth is just a side effect.
And Ran, who's not built very strong, just got beaten up every day.
[illegible] Because of me?



That's not what I'm saying.
And of course it's not your fault.
[illegible] authority's fault for putting all Highly Dangerous Mana users in one facility.

Though he has a Highly Dangerous Mana, Ran has been Senika's only guardian ever since they were young, so he has an acute stress disorder.

It seems like a personality disorder at first glance, but only Ran knows what goes on in his mind.

Kyoshin, I won't ask you to understand.

I just.

I just want you to know that he has tried to make do here just as much as you have

The reason I left for a few months was to test the vaccine.
Of course, the results were excellent.
There's no need to hide things from you any longer. There won't be any more problems.
That's why I'll tell you why this facility was built
It's not too hard to understand.
Here you, as Highly Dangerous Mana Users, can live under the protection of

For you children, who have suffered immensely...
...because of your powerful Mana,
...this is your home.

There were three – no, four – children unacquainted with the world and its ways.

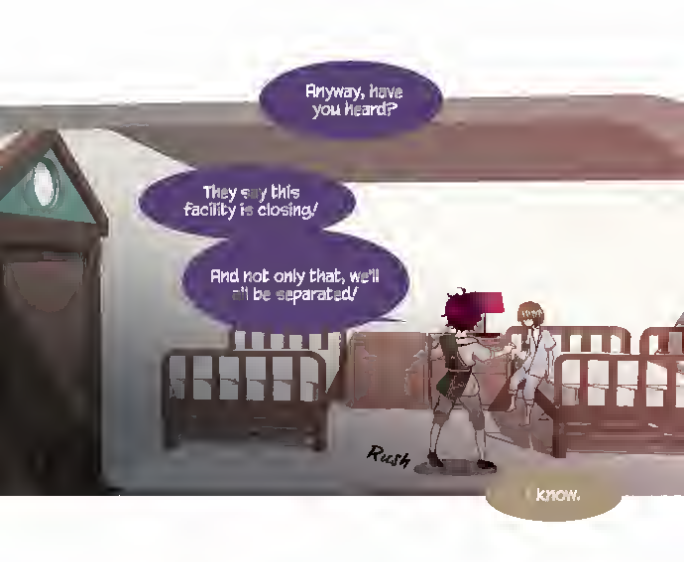
.. or because they were isolated when they were much too young. In short,

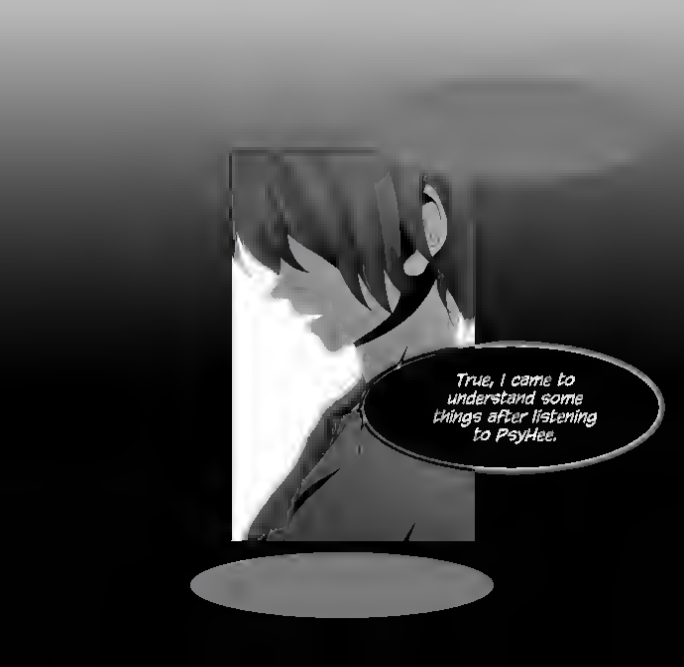
They were completely naive.

Kashin! Have you seen Ran?
Why ask me about him?
Oh, so you're still acting like enemies.



Anyway, have you heard?
They say this facility is closing!
And not only that, we'll all be separated!
Rush
I know.

How can you be so calm, then?!
Who knows what could happen to us?!
I wonder.
I feel bad for Nori, but anywhere would be better than here.



True, I came to understand some things after listening to PsyHee.

I never thought about how these guys were raised, or why they behaved so strangely.
I really just judged them superficially, without considering what went on in their heads.

But, aside from understanding...

Since that's the best solution I have.

So fighting your friend is supposed to help me?
Glare
It's his fault you were hurting.
I told you to stop thinking that way.

Don't you dare come here before making up!
I'm seriously angry this time.
—.....

Senika, do you hate me too?

Am I a hassle? You think I'm being unreasonable?
But it's true that you got sick because of him.

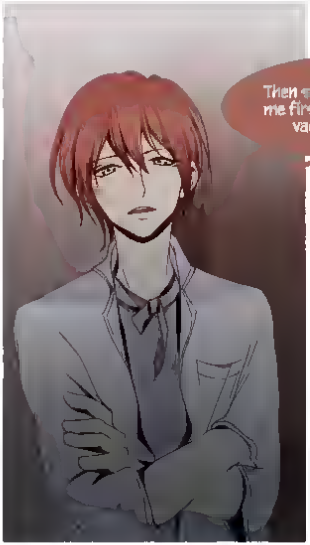
You had to cut your hair, and your skin got all rough. Anyway, you got ugly and it's all his fault!
No. Even if people go blind looking at you, you'll always be the prettiest girl to me.

I know that I was wrong this time. But I couldn't just leave him be once I knew he was hurting you

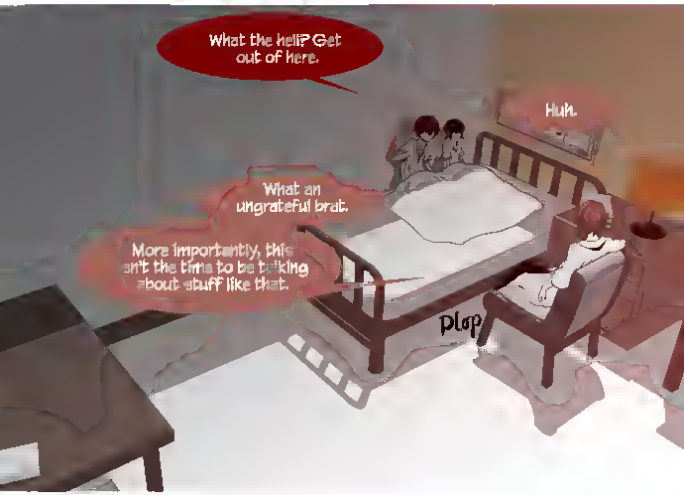
Of the thirteen who were with me... You're the only one left. The only family I have now

What?
"Please don't hurt?"

Ka-cha



Then shouldn't you thank me first? I developed the vaccine, after all.



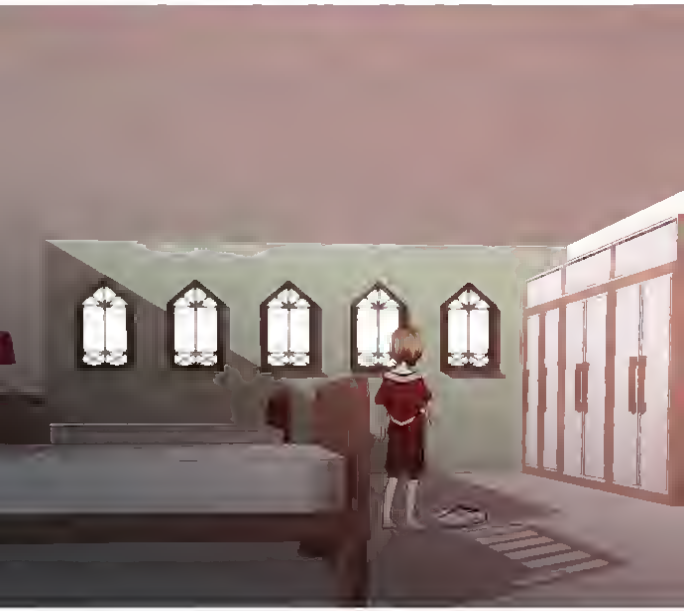
What the hell? Get out of here.
Huh.
What an ungrateful brat.
More importantly, this isn't the time to be talking about stuff like that.
Plop

I don't know how but word got out that you two fought. The Officials ordered me back to the Organization as soon as my work here is done.
I asked them to wait a bit longer but at today's meeting it was three against one.
Then go. Who's stopping you?
Do you remember what I told you when Kashin first came?
All Highly Dangerous Mana Users are sentenced to death unless the majority votes against it.

So what?! You said that was resolved!
Yes.
That's because you, Senika, and Nori didn't matter to them.

Air Mana never caused any accidents – until your Fight, that is. That made them realize its potential danger to the world.
What are you sayi--?

So, you mean...?
Thud



The noob will be executed?

〈Trump〉 ©이채은

SFX: Fwoosh

Kashin has never hurt people with his Mana before.
In some ways, this incident increased the Elders' paranoia

Thanks to that, during the executive meeting, they decided that the wisest action would be to eliminate Keshin. That prevents him from using his power to hurt others in the future. Because he's still young, prevention is the best way to deal with the problem.

What the hell is that?

Why? Why kill him? Why the hell would they do that?
He didn't even do anything!!
How can you say that? You're the one who drove him into a corner and forced him to use his Mana against you!

Even if it was for Seiken's vaccine, I know that I shouldn't have left the facility. I regret that so much.
But what were you thinking, causing this sort of problem?
I know that you can't control your emotions, but I never thought you would take things so far.
Now that the high[illegible] have voted three to one for him's death, what do you think I should
I ACT ANGRY AT KASHIN FOR USING HIS MANA? OR SHOULD I BE HONEST AND TELL HIM THAT HE'S GOING TO DIE?!
I COULD ONLY BRING MYSELF TO SAY THAT YOU WEREN'T HURT BADLY, AND NOT TO [illegible] THAT YOU'RE JUST THIS KIND OF [illegible] HE SHOULD TRY TO UNDERSTAND

Even if it hurt his feelings, I should have told him about Senka's condition and your relationship with her. But no matter how much I regret it, it doesn't change the fact that he's going to die.

I'm at fault for not telling Kashin the truth and telling him to be careful.

And Ran, your only fault is your twisted way of thinking.

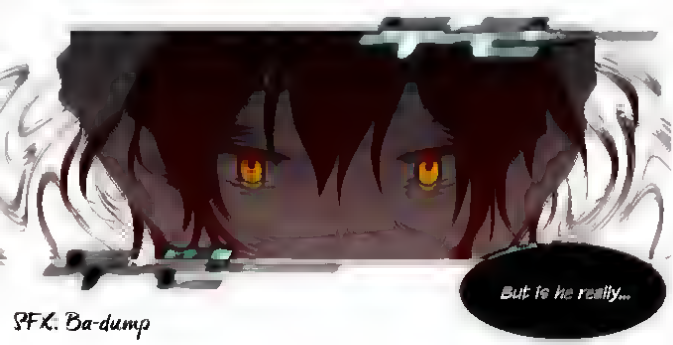
We drove him to his death.

...did I do?
throb
throb
Flee.
I thought he should disappear, because he hurt Senka. Back then, I was serious.



SFX. Ba-dump

...going to die, just like that?

Oh...

...I'm fine with that
Going off on my own after this facility closes? Yes, that's good

What? What?!
Kaelvin's going somewhere else?!
I guess
Enough. I
.....

...You should at least tell someone if they are doomed.

Come on, Kashin.
He's the leader of the Yeoha-dan. He'll take care of you from now on.
H-Hello.
Well then, please continue.
The leader of the Yeoha-dan? One of the four Executives?

He said it'd be another caretaker, so I expected someone like PayHee. I didn't think such an authority would com...
It's a bit...
Is this...

...Really it?
